“LOOKING UP AND OUTWARD”

Christianity is not just a change of actions; it is a change of heart. I am reminded of Saul of Tarsus, who, being a very devout Jew and Pharisee, had a life changing experience that could be seen as well as heard. While a Pharisee, Saul was not a friend to Gentiles or Christians. His life’s goal was to serve God by insuring that the Law of Moses was to be respected, kept and preached. However, he found himself seeing people through God’s eyes after a short three days of self examination while he was unable to see anything. Several things happened to him during that time; First he had a change of command...The One he fought so hard against became his Lord and Master. Secondly, He changed his attitude about the gospel. He found out that it is only through Christ and not law that people are saved. Thirdly, he changed his attitude about people. He discovered that there is neither Jew or Gentile, male or female, slave or free at the foot of the cross. And that changed his heart, not just his theology! And the rest is history.

I love you all, Jack Cummings
