“LOOKING UP AND OUTWARD”

This morning begins a new era both Western Hills and Sandra and me. We have been looking forward to this day with great anticipation and excitement. I am excited to be back into preaching full-time and I want to make you aware of some things I believe are essential to being a faithful minister of God’s word. First, I believe that every lesson I present must be based upon God’s truth. No child of God who is truly seeking God’s heart, ways and love should be afraid of truth. Secondly, I believe that every lesson should have some application to our present day setting that is both meaningful and life changing. God’s word is living; therefore it should motivate the hearers to move closer to God regardless of which century or time in which they live. Thirdly, I believe God’s word must encourage, even when it must deal with rebuking or correction. At the heart of all scripture you will find the love of God that motivated the writers to warn, correct, rebuke, but to also build up, encourage and commend his people to love Him and one another. Therefore, as we start our journey together, let us all begin by making a conscience effort to always encourage, build up and love one another so we can all grow into the image of the One whose name we wear.

I love you all, Jack

THE CHURCH LIBRARY is in need of helpers who would be willing to work 2 or more hours one afternoon a week. No library experience is necessary as most of the work is of a clerical nature such as sorting, stamping, labeling, working with lists, etc. Our library has some great books needing to be processed and it could use extra hands and hearts.
